The LUXURY of Silence

Silence in a motor car has always been a luxury and commanded a luxury price. The Daimler Fluid Fly-wheel Transmission replaces the usual metal-to-metal contact between engine and gearbox by a stream of oil which does not transmit sound. Daimler and Lanchester cars are silent. Silent in their gear—silent when they're travelling like the wind. Yet they cost much less than you'd expect. Please ask for a demonstration that will surprise you. We are Official Dealers for

SPEED, SIMPLICITY and SAFETY

in Local Anæsthesia

WITH "Waite's" cartridges* all you have to do to prepare for an injection is to adjust the needle, and slip a cartridge into the syringe. Speed in administration, however, is not the only merit of the "Waite's" cartridge* method; it is also convenient, as the anæsthetic solution is completely compounded ready for use; safe because the solution at the time of injection comes in contact with nothing but the sterilised needle, and efficient, because "Waite's" Local Anæsthetic (Procaine Solution) is the most reliable local anæsthetic solution available to the profession with a record of forty years of successful result in dental, surgical and veterinary practice throughout the world. It produces excellent anæsthesia, does not damage or irritate the tissues, is sterile and has definite antiseptic action.
